

House Resolution No. 2515

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives enjoy a long, proud tradition of meeting their responsibilities to the citizens of this state while upholding the virtues represented by the "Glory of Missouri": Knowledge, Liberty, Equality, Law, Justice, Fraternity, Education, Progress, Honor, Truth, Virtue, Temperance, Enterprise, and Charity; and

Whereas, these virtues are engraved in the House Chamber of the State Capitol with the inscription: "All the foregoing human qualities bind into one theme, the Glory of Missouri because no people attain these virtues unless they are great."; and

Whereas, the "Glory of Missouri" Award was created to encourage the values held by the early leaders of Missouri and to recognize those standards as exemplified in our schools and communities by this state's young people, the future of Missouri; and

Whereas, Carissa Meyers, a student at Missouri School for the Deaf in Fulton, has been selected to receive the "Glory of Missouri" Award for her accomplishments in the area of TRUTH as defined by the Decorating Commission for the Capitol in 1922 and in the areas of VIRTUE, TEMPERANCE, and CHARITY as defined by Webster's dictionary in 1926; and

Whereas, TRUTH: "A reflection of every line with strict accuracy" is the way the early Legislature thought of truth. They wrote, "The truth is never complete if only a part of the facts are revealed; in fact, the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth is the Naked Truth."; and

Whereas, VIRTUE: "Moral practice or action; conformity to the standard of right; moral excellence, integrity of character, uprightness of conduct. Also a particular moral of excellence."; and

Whereas, TEMPERANCE: "Moderation of passion, self-control; calmness. Habitual moderation in the indulgence of the appetites and passions; moderation."; and

Whereas, CHARITY: "More generally, love; benevolence good will; affection an act or feeling of affection or benevolence. Charity is therefore a habit of good will in the soul, which disposes us to the love, assistance, and relief of mankind, especially of those who stand in need of it.";

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in commending Carissa Meyers for her noteworthy achievements in the pursuit of TRUTH, VIRTUE, TEMPERANCE, and CHARITY, and in extending heartfelt congratulations to her at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Carissa Meyers, as a measure of our esteem for her.
